

General Millwork Labor

Job Description

Want to own the company you work for? Western Building Products is looking for dedicated employee owners!

We are looking for highly motivated, hardworking and dependable individuals with desire to join a dynamic team in a fast-paced environment!

The Company

Western Building Products Inc. is a growing company and is one of the largest distributors of millwork products in the Midwest. Headquartered in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, we employ 200+ people in two facilities. We are proud to provide world-class quality millwork products and services together with outstanding customer service to the construction, commercial and remodeling markets. Western Building Products is a 100% employee owned company.

Benefits as an Employee Owner

- Competitive starting wage with opportunity to progress
- Excellent benefits including Health, Dental, and Vision coverage
- Participation in Employee Stock Ownership Plan – wealth accumulation
- Monthly Bonus program
- Vacation, Holidays, and other Employee Benefits
-

Summary:

The Assembler is responsible for putting together interior and exterior door units using hand tools, pneumatic tools, and machine equipment; work performed in a production department

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

This list of duties and responsibilities is not all inclusive and may be expanded to include other duties and responsibilities as management may deem necessary from time to time.

- Reads and follows shop tickets in order to build and assemble quality interior/exterior door units in an accurate and timely fashion.
- Verify materials received.
- Ensure neat, orderly and damage free storage of material.
- Maintain inventory records on computer system.
- Assist with basic assemblies as needed.

Qualifications:

- Must have punctual and regular attendance
- Be able to perform basic math calculation.

- Able to handle moderate to heavy awkward objects.
- Be able to read a tape measure.
- Must be able to perform in a teamwork environment.
- Millwork experience a plus.

Please submit your resume online or complete an application at 7007 N 115th Milwaukee, WI 53224.
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer.